Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights may be affected.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice?

This is a Court-authorized Long Form Notice of a proposed Settlement of a class action lawsuit (the "Action") known as Ahlers, et al. v. Allina Health System, Case No. 0:24-cv-03674, pending in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota (the "Court").

The Settlement would resolve claims raised by Plaintiffs alleging that because Allina Health System ("Allina" or "Defendant") used pixel tracking (referred to herein as "Pixels") on its websites and webpages, certain personal or health-related information of the individuals who visited the websites and webpages may have been disclosed to third parties.

The Court has granted preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and has conditionally certified the Settlement Class for purposes of Settlement only. This Long Form Notice explains the nature of the litigation, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the legal rights and obligations of members of the Settlement Class, and the benefits available and how to receive them.

This Notice is only a summary of the proposed Settlement. For the precise terms and conditions of the Settlement, please see the Settlement Agreement available at www.AllinaPixelSettlement.com.

2. Why did I receive a Notice?

You received a Notice because Allina's records indicate that you fit the description of the Settlement Class. The Court authorized that Notice be sent to Settlement Class Members because you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement.

3. What is this Lawsuit about?

The lawsuit arises out of Allina's implementation of Pixels on its websites and webpages, which Plaintiffs allege caused personal and health-related information to be shared with third parties in violation of Settlement Class Members' privacy, among other things.

4. Why is this a class action?

A class action is a type of lawsuit in which one or more individuals called "Class Representatives" bring a single lawsuit on behalf of other people who have similar claims. In a class action settlement, all these people together are a "Settlement Class" or "Settlement Class Members." When a class action is settled, the Settlement, which must be approved by the Court, resolves the claims for all Settlement Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Settlement.

5. Why is there a Settlement?

The Parties agreed to the proposed Settlement to put the matter to rest without the expense, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation. If approved by the Court, the Settlement will resolve all claims brought on behalf of the Settlement Class related to the potential disclosure of personal and health-related information because of the Pixels used by Allina.

The Settlement Agreement requires Allina to provide compensation to Settlement Class Members who submit valid and timely Claim Forms. The Settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Allina and does not imply that there has been, or would be, any finding that Allina violated the law. The Court overseeing this Action has not determined that Allina did anything wrong.

The Court already has preliminarily approved the Settlement Agreement. The Court conditionally certified the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, so that members of the Settlement Class could be notified and given the opportunity to exercise their legal rights to exclude themselves or to voice their support or opposition to Final Approval of the Settlement Agreement. The Court must give Final Approval to the Settlement Agreement before it can be effective. If the Court does not grant Final Approval, or if it is terminated by the Parties, then the Settlement Agreement will be void, and the litigation will proceed as if there had been no settlement and no certification of the Settlement Class.

WHO IS INCLUDED

6. Who is included in the Settlement Class?

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

12. How do I object to the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you do not request exclusion, you can tell the Court why

You must send your objection by mail no later than August 10, 2026 to Defendant's Counsel and Class Counsel at the addresses on the Settlement Website. Notice of an objection may also be filed with the Court no later than August 10, 2026. If you file an objection, you may still receive benefits under the Settlement so long as you timely and separately file a Valid Claim.

(CT) in Courtroom 7B of the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota, Warren E. Burger Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse, Saint Paul, MN.

At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and in the best interests of the Settlement Class, and whether any Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Award and Service Awards should be approved.
